6 THINGS TO THINK ABOUT BEFORE YOUR ONLINE INTERVIEW

1

Set up

Position yourself in a well-lit space, preferably with natural light in front of you. Ensure your camera is at eye level and check your background is free of any clutter or blur your background.

2

Dress professionally

Now, more than ever, you're expected to look the part. Your attire should match the formality of the meeting. Dressing professionally not only makes a good impression but it's the age-old saying: "Look smart, think smart"

3

Body language

The screen limits how much of your body is visible so it's crucial your upper body and facial expressions convey engagement and confidence. Maintain eye contact, sit up straight and give active listening cues.

4

Technical

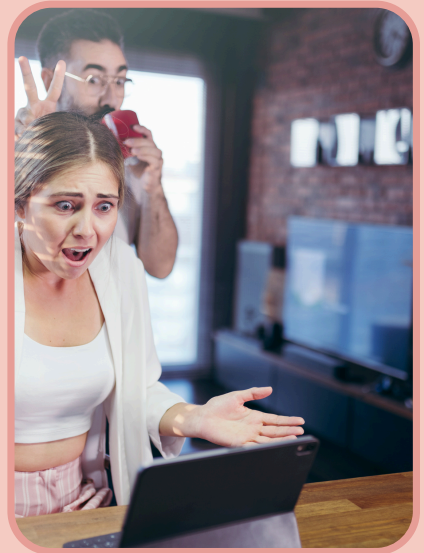

Familiarise yourself with the technical features of the platform you're using. Test your mic and headphones before use, and mute yourself when not speaking to avoid picking up background noise. Ensure you know how to share your screen too.

5

Interruptions

Interruptions are inevitable, it's how you handle them that's important!

6

Leave a lasting impression

Use this interview as an opportunity to showcase your talents and professionalism.

Good luck!
